

RESTORE CONTACT LAYER

Product Description

RESTORE CONTACT LAYER is a TRIACT lipido-colloid technology, which provides a moist wound interface and allows virtually pain-free removal. It also helps avoid trauma to delicate tissue upon removal. It is shown to be effective against bacteria associated with wound infections. Features

- RESTORE CONTACT LAYER is a lipido-colloid technology, which provides a moist wound interface and allows virtually pain-free removal. It also helps avoid trauma to delicate tissue upon removal. It is shown to be effective against bacteria associated with wound infections.